
MRS. EVERETT THOMAS HENDRICKS
the former Miss Mary Katherine Sears

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Mary Katherine Sears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen Sears of Appomattox, to Everett Thomas Hendricks, son of Mrs. Charles E. McCormick of Appomattox and the late Mr. Thomas Harrison Hendricks of Bayview, Texas, took place in the garden of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sears, parents of the bride. Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. An Ivy entwined white trellis arch provided the altar for the outdoor ceremony.

The Rev. Forrest S. Wagoner, assisted by Rev. Henry E. Riley, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown, a chantilly lace and satin gown with small stand-up collar, tight waist, and long sleeves. The floor length skirt of satin was designed with a lace overskirt draped in paloaise effect, ending in a bustle of Victorian type. She wore a cathedral matilla of English tulle edged with matching lace. In the tradition of her family, the bride wore her great, great grandmother's pearl engagement bracelet. She carried a colonial b ou quet of white majestic daisies and p i n k sweetheart roses and purple statice.

Miss Lou Ann Sears, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a deep coral pink gown of floral voile with low ruffled neckline, high waist and puffed sleeves and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink majestic daisies, purple statice magnolia leaves and ivy.

Braidesmaids were Miss Elizabeth M. Somers of Virginia Beach, Miss Marikay Gough of Lynchburg, cousin of the bride, Miss Debra Joy Hawkins, Miss Hazel Fay Paulette, Miss Hilda Kay Paulette, Miss Suzanne Eileen Hendricks, sister of the bridegroom, all of Appomattox. Their gowns were identical to that of the honor attendant.

Lynn Aaron Doss of Richmond, Virginia was best man. Ushers were James Paul McLean of Houston, Texas, brother of the bridegroom, Robert Allen Sears, Jr., brother of the bride, Don Edward Conner of Lynchburg, W. D. Adams, Jr., Richard B. Poe and Harold Thomas Chambers, III, all of Appomattox.

Miss Nancy Mathews, organist, and Mr. Travis Poole, soloist, provided a program of wedding music.

After the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County H i g h School and has completed one year at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Virginia, where she will continue her education in the fall.

The groom is a graduate of Appomattox County H i g h School and attended Central Virginia Community College and will attend Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University this fall.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Pembroke, Va.
